UNION TOOL WINS GAME IN NINTH

Bouett Does a "Babe" Ruth Stunt and Game Is Over

The second meeting between the Associated Oil team and the Union Tool boys in Torrance was a reversal of form on the part of our team and this time the home boys copped the game by Bouett doing a "Babe" Ruth in the ninth inning.

The game was a free hitting affair by both teams and furnished the crowd plenty of chances to rise in their seats.

Big Features at Torrance Theatre

"The Voice From the Minaret," Norma Talmadge's latest picture for First National release, which will be shown at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, June 24 and 25, is noteworthy for its unique variety of settings. The story, from the pen of Robert Hitchens, covers considerable ground, and Director Frank Lloyd was compelled to reproduce far-off scenes on the studio lot in Los Angeles.

The story opens in Bombay, India; proceeds through the Suez Canal to Port Said; then to Damascus, back to Bombay, from there to London and finally has its finish written in its exotic pages in Damascus again.

A real treat is in store for patrons of this theatre when Shirley Mason's latest production, "Shirley of the Circus," is shown Tuesday and Wednesday, June 26 and 27. There are thrills a-plenty, a real human story of real live people, characters we all know portrayed by actors and actresses of exceptional ability—and then, most important of all, there is Shirley Mason, whose dainty beauty and compelling personality fairly radiate joy and good cheer throughout the entire entertainment.

Destitute and with no prospect of shelter for the night, Mary Fenton was invited to stay with the Loftus Walfords, social climbers, who believed her to be somebody else and wealthy. Would you take a chance on getting away with it? Agnes Ayres, as Mary Fenton, in her latest picture, "A Daughter of Luxury," took the chance. As to whether or not she got away with it, the picture coming Thursday and Friday nights, June 28 and 29, reveals most interestingly.

One day a park bench, the next a beautifully furnished office with expensive tapestries and cushioned chairs. One day broke and discouraged, the next day successful and happy. These things fall to the lot of Jack Holt, star in "Making a Man," a Paramount picture which will be the feature at this theatre next Saturday, June 30. The scenes appear far apart in the picture but were shot at the studio on two succeeding days.
